Novo wrote on Wed, 19 May 2010 19:32Could you please make this script a part of source code distribution and also put it on the web-site in a place, where it can be easily found, because it will be lost among forum messages? Hi Novo,

It is Ubuntu specific, so it should not be in the source package. But I plan to put it on the download page. Probably also with script to build package for Debian...
