Honza, I'm sure you deserve the prize. However, my question was and still is more elementary. A little more detail on what's involved and how the cookie awards work will help. I myself did not vote since I did not know what factors to consider while I cast votes. The link to the cookie prize page does not really explain things clearly. So, my questions.

I know I am exposing my U++ newbie roots here, but, I guess I'd better be embarrassed for not knowing than remain like that forever.

Thanks, Cheers
