Thank you a lot, jerson ! I like also your slider too, and didn't plan to use it mainly because of the lack of .usc file ! This reason is no more available now

However, I should prefer to use an "official" control from bazaar. I'll try to make a .usc file for Koldo's slider starting from yours... I opened a new topic on how to make .usc files. I would appreciate if somebody can help me getting started with that
