Subject: Re: Missing character (½) in 605 rc1 and rc2
Posted by mirek on Wed, 17 May 2006 18:39:07 GMT

Well, it makes a switch to UTF-8... However, UTF-8 is what you are supposed to use, as long as you are not solving some legacy issues.....

Have you used some other charset settings? If your code in some other encoding (in TheIDE)?

I must admit that situation is a bit misleading here, as TheIDE has "Win1252 = ISO-8859-1" as "superdefault", not UTF-8...

Mirek