It tells me:
CtrlCore/ImageX11.cpp:252:2: error: stray '@' in program
Hi NilaT,

You just had a bad luck in picking the nightly source Someone forgot a debug macro in source, which is in release mode defined as '@' (so that it is easy to notice - though it seems that nobody ever does). It is already fixed, just grab a newer package tomorrow (or older, if you don't want to wait).

Best regards,
