I see, quite an huge job to do.

As you say, I guess that core porting should not be so difficult (not too easy, either).

But the rest is not easy at all.

It's a pity that I don't have enough skills on Android to do some part... I could try something, but my time is also scarce.

Anyways, the job you did up to now is really awesome ;)

I'm coding a couple of small apps with QT, but I really miss the comfort of UPP.

Ciao

Max
