Hello,

You still don't append "CtrlCore" to your project. "CtrlLib" without "CtrlCore" will not work. Can you make following steps and can you confirm that CtrlCore is listed on the list in dialog window?

Tutorial:

EDIT - VERY IMPORTANT:

After last screenshot I can confirm that the nest is wrongly set. Can you make the screen-shot of MyAppps assembly setup this is shown in the message #48053. To open that dialog - open TheIDE and double click on "MyApps" assembly.

Sincerely,
Klugier
