Hi,

I have only been using U++ for a few days so I don't know if this is a long time bug or recent.

The default IDE settings make my eyes bleed :lol:

I have altered my settings to emulate(ish) Sublime Text (image below and settings file attached).

The issue:

Whenever I use the menu items Setup->Abbreviations or Setup->Macro Manager all of my Syntax highlighting settings are over written with the default settings so I have to re-enter the settings. I have now just taken a copy of my settings file and copy it back over whenever it reverts back to default settings.

My settings...
