Command line contains "-lcrypto -lssl".

Linker is looking for libcrypto.a & libssl.a, which are named crypto.lib & ssl.lib.

Can you try to add .lib in package organizer? Just to know it that helps.

Adding .lib to crypto & ssl doesn't affect anything.

BTW, precompiled ssl is already included into Clang distribution bundled with Upp.

And, I guess, Clang is using its own ssl ...

And one shipped with Upp seems to be compiled with msvc ...

Another thing. llvm-mingw-20200325-ubuntu-18.04 doesn't include a prebuilt version of ssl ...

This is weird ...
