Hello Mirek. Hello Klugier!

Sry, for the late reply. Wasnt at work anymore yesterday

Yes, the code is secret and its really hard to reproduce those fake-errors by intention.

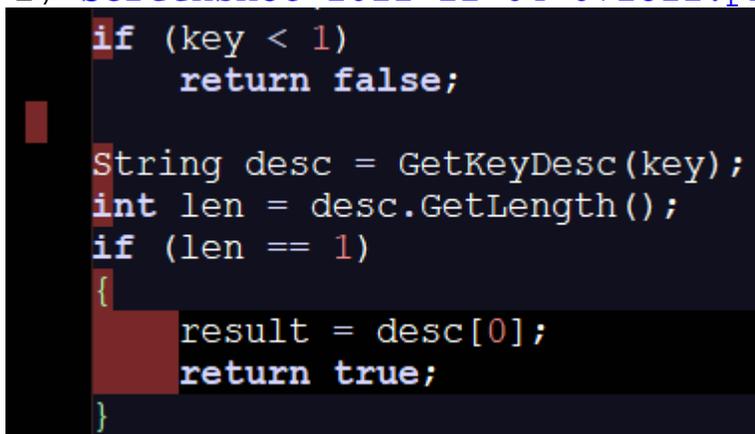

Just added another screenshots of an occurence.

Best Regards

A screenshot of a code editor showing C++ code. The code is as follows:

```
if (key < 1)
    return false;

String desc = GetKeyDesc(key);
int len = desc.GetLength();
if (len == 1)
{
    result = desc[0];
    return true;
}
```
