For now, the changed to DarkTheme are rolled back. It will need some more research I guess...
Still cannot see them well. I looked at the old (2020) code and the values (in old coding style) were:

double DarkTheme_c[3] = { 0.3, 0.5, 0.2 };
int   DarkTheme_middle = 155;

Those I can see well on the dark background.

Best regards,

Tom
