For now, I've submitted to:
Software For You <http://soft4u.org.ru>
Data Picks <http://www.datapicks.com/>

These two sites will review the submission before listing so they might send notification e-mails to you. They will use one of the e-mail addresses in the pad file.

There will be others like these so if you prefer, you can change the e-mails in the pad file to avoid "mixing" these e-mails with your regular e-mails.

Best Regards,
Yeoh
