Hello,

I would like to announce that we delivered Macro Manager feature to TheIDE. The main goal of that feature is to provide the window that allows you to mange IDE scripts in one place. Grab the screen-shot:

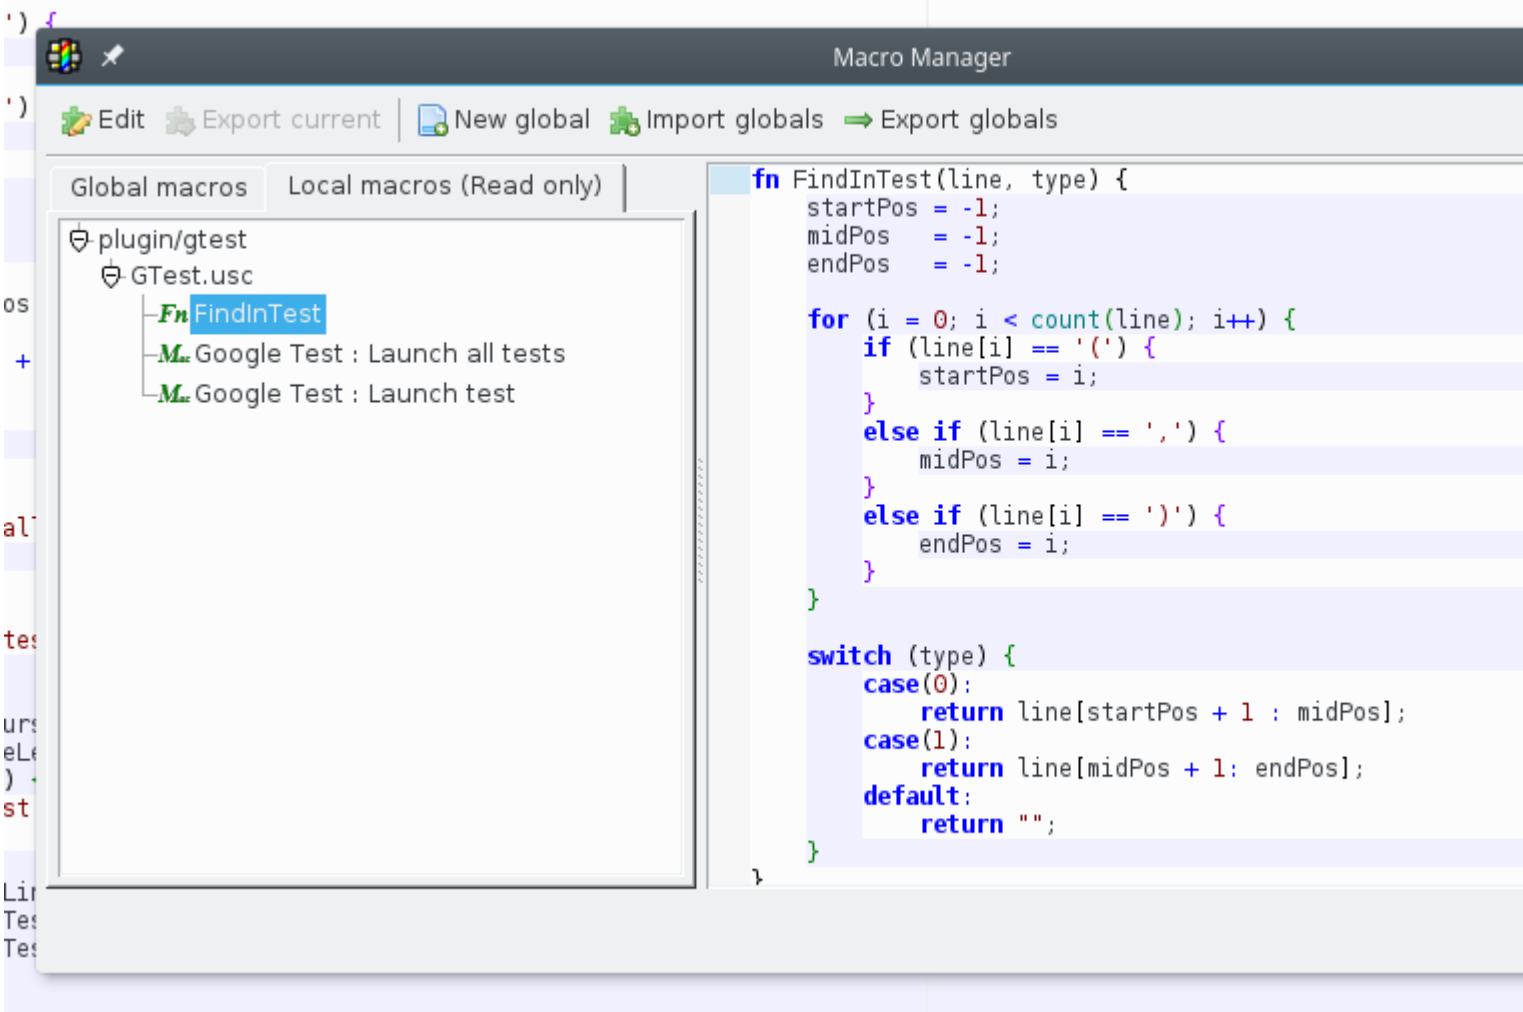

The detailed information about MacroManager will be written in our documentation in the future.

In this place, I would like to thanks Omari for the huge contributions in this area. Thanks one more time!

Sincerely,
Klugier

Hello Klugier,

Thank you!
This is really handy. Keep up the good work!

Best regards,
