I had same idea as sergeynikitin, and I made very similar sql report generator and sql report

Contains (class SqlReportParse) :
- Generate reports from the sql as well for any data (Vector<Vector<Value> >)
- Using class Report
- Using header, body, footer
- It is possible grouping and summing data

- Save report structure to file or stream and use it directly, from another program.

Excellent! We need more different report generators.

How many good ideas used in SqlRep ...

I think subject reporting a wider, and this fact should be reflected on the forum.
