...and fixed again.

The problem was caused by broken uppweb package (and the winner is Koldo .

Sorry for so such delay. It was unfortunate that at the very same time the process got broken, we had exceeded googlecode quota, so apparently that was the first thing to fix.

Oh no !

In fact I did not want to touch any more uppweb code, and include all the pdf source in a separate Bazaar package.

Just to avoid it. And it did happen !

Best regards
