I only know 2 Andrei working on U++ - Andrei Catalin and me. It's not hard to know who's who Andrei Catalin = andrei_catalin
Andrei Cosma (me) = andreincx (bytefield, andrei_natanael and ndrew2k - in svn)
Easy no? I'll share then same name in svn, forum, IRC.

It's an improvement I always wondered what luzr meant coz it's pronounced "loser" so maybe it's some kind of czechoslovakia thing.

unodgs is another funny one coz it's pronounced uno-dogs and spelt that way sometimes too.

I might change my nickname if I can think of a better one.

It is how you would write 'loser' phonetically in Czech. It was sort of joke, ten years ago, but got boring (and stupid) over time..
