Hello,

I just signed up and while doing that I noticed the following message:

"If you are 13 or under, please use this registration form."

Not that I'm under 13, but there is no link at "this registration form".

just mentioning

Perhaps it was intended to be

"If you are 13 or under, please DON'T use this registration form."

IMHO it doesn't make much more sense, but it would better comply with American law. Not that any of the core developers were Americans

Best regards,
