Subject: New QTF formating command for GUI texts Posted by mirek on Fri, 29 Aug 2014 11:20:55 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

So far, QTF had 'G' command that set standard GUI font and 'G1' was common way how to set standard font in standard size on screen. However, due to font metrics issues on some systems the calculation mades the font slightly smaller.

There is now new 'g' command that sets both font and height and guarantees that the height is standard.