Hi.

The forum link on the main page to the right in the box labeled "Users" is missing a 's'.
The actual text is correct but the link is
"http://www.ultimatepp.org/forum" but should be
"http://www.ultimatepp.org/forums"

Same issue can be seen in the forum link at:
http://www.ultimatepp.org/appideAbout$en-us.html

Best regards
Tomas

Hello and thanks for report,

Should be fixed. Probably tomorrow you will see the changes. Please notice that site doesn't sync immediately with svn.

But I think we have got more problems with invalidate urls. Task of this issue on redmine - http://www.ultimatepp.org/redmine/issues/1393

Sincerely,
Klugier
